Responsibilities will include: Set-up and take down for events, assistance at registration table, food preparation, greeting guests, assisting stage managers, hosts and other CDA staff with overall event organization.

The benefits to volunteering?

1 Shift Volunteers:

- *receive a CDA t-shirt
- *have free admittance to Moving Strategies National Dance Conference on the day they volunteer
- *are provided with meals during the time they volunteer

2 Shift Volunteers:

- *receive all 1 day volunteer benefits
- *access to CDA special discount rate of $25 on Dance in Vancouver performances (valid for advance online purchase for the Wednesday and Thursday shows). Note that volunteers will receive ticket purchasing instructions upon signing up for 2 shifts.
- *receive CDA discounted rate for the purchase of tickets to the I love dance/J'aime la danse Awards on November 19 (if not volunteering at this event).

3 Shifts or more:

- *receive all 1 day and 2 day volunteer benefits
- *are given 1 year CDA membership for free
- *receive one ticket to attend the I love dance Awards Ceremony (or one day pass to attend conference if already volunteering during the Awards Ceremony)

This is a wonderful opportunity to network and to establish connections within the dance community. Volunteers who can work a combination of shifts throughout the conference will benefit greatly from this experience. It will also offer our conference attendees a familiar face and a personal touch. We look forward to working with you on this exciting weekend of activities in BC, it will be inspiring and invigorating!

For more information or to sign up to volunteer contact Wendy Dewdney at wendy@dancecanada.net or call 416-515-8444. Thank you!
